Freed-Hardeman College

Director of Public Relations
HENDERSON, TENNESSEE

February 21, 1963

Mr. John Allen Chalk
P. O. Box 474
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Chalk:

Your speech at the Lectureship has been a continual topic on this campus. You made one of the biggest hits that anyone has made on any lectureship program to my knowledge.

I was so sorry to receive your letter about discontinuing the Freed-Hardeman College Chorus tapes. Brother Dixon has just authorized me to tell you that we will continue to furnish the tapes as long as you brethren will provide for the time. Unless or until we hear from you again, we shall continue to send the tapes to you free of charge.

Sincerely,

W. A. B.

W. A. Bradfield
